

Press Release

Secretary WDD Ms.Irum Bukhari, The department is adopting a holistic and interlinked approach during implementation to embrace accomplishment and we should strict on it in future.

The meeting was chaired by Secretary Women Development Department Ms.Irum bukhari ,Chairperson , Punjab Commission on the status of Women, Additional Secretary, Women Development Department, Mr. Amir Aqiq Manj, Director Directorate Women Development department Mr. Arshad Baig and other officers from DWD and PCSW attended the session, In the First briefing session to the worthy Secretary , Director DWD briefed “Over the past couple of years, the department has implemented several initiatives to empower women, some initiatives are ongoing, whereas a substantial amount of women-centered capacity building measures are underway.

Secretary WDD said that She was the first Secretary of WDD in 2012 and herself initiated steps with the vision that department will work to strengthening existing and introducing additional collaboration for providing advocacy and knowledge development functions on themes of gender mainstreaming and women empowerment.

While reviewing the performance of the department she said that we will ensure provision of equal opportunities to the women and it’s their right too for the development of the society and we will work together as team for more and better initiatives in future

Furthermore, she said, the department is adopting a holistic and interlinked approach during implementation to embrace accomplishment and we should strict on it in future.